Too bad this letter will go into your wastebasket instead of in the newspaper where it belongs.

MILLION MILE GAFFER WITH NO WRECKS
Dear No Wreck: You drive a lot better than you read, dad. I made it clear the "Old Gaffer" letters were expressions from readers and did not reflect my point of view. Every survey I have seen proves the drivers under 25 years of age are far more dangerous than the senior citizens.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 18 and look and act older. My Uncle Wally is 36 but looks and acts younger. He has told me he loves me and I'm sure I love him. He is not a blood relative, but my uncle by marriage. Uncle Wally married my dad's sister 10 years ago. This was a second marriage for both.

My aunt is a pleasant person but she is lazy and sloppy. They fight most of the time because she won't cook or keep house.

I know Uncle Wally and I could be happy together and he will marry me if I say the word. Boys my own age are a bore. Please tell me our love is real. Thank you.—PATTY

Dear Patty: Your love is real, all right. Real nothing. You are fiddling around with a married man twice your age—a two-time-loser—and an uncle at that.

Where are your parents anyway? Stop seeing this moron at once or you'll be in more trouble than you need.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What to Expect From Marriage," enclosing your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

When your baby begins to creep he may rebel a bit at the playpen but there will still be times when you'll want baby to stay put. How to keep your scot-free baby after he's had a taste of freedom? These tips may be helpful:

- Time element. If you reserve pen times for baby's most contented times, he probably won't resent it.
- Toy trickery. A few different toys for each session help keep baby's "housing development" an interesting place to come home to. A covered saucer with a Gerber Teething Biscuit inside adds a nice surprise.
- Position counts. By placing the pen where baby can watch your comings and goings, he won't feel neglected.

Meat of the matter. A baby with crawl privileges needs protein to help develop those muscles he's using more and more.

Gerber Strained Meats provide protein galore in the smoothest form that ever summoned up a baby's smile.

Made from special cuts selected by Armour, these quality meats are low in fat for easy digestibility . . . great on true-meat flavors for ready acceptability. 9 varieties . . . 5 junior meats for tots with teeth.

Safety measures for fourwalkers. Creepers make a beeline for bright objects to be sure to scan the floor for pins, buttons, etc. Iron and toaster cords should not be left a-dangle. Floor fans or heaters are a hazard.

Sunny-side up for creepers, lap-sitters or high-chair heroes and heroines. Gerber Strained Egg Yolks are bright as a splash of sunshine . . . have a delicate, fresh-egg flavor and creamy, custard-like texture that's hard to beat for downright delightful eating. As for nourishment, Gerber Egg Yolks are high in vitamin A, rich in iron and a good source of protein. Gerber Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.

American as its red, white and blue color scheme, is provincial in design with great distinction and charm.

Family living in mind, the Hebenstreit home is described as transitional. Done in a gold and white color scheme accents are warm orange and browns.

The contemporary decor of the Oscar Berk home gives an impression of the continuation of the sea with its myriad hues of ocean blues, greens, gold, touches of amethyst and sparkling white. Elegance is apparent in the terrazo fireplace, crystal chandeliers, chairs inlaid with mother-of-pearl, and hand-loomed draperies.

Withstanding all onslaughts of transient change, the M. Bayer home expresses simplicity and elegance of design in its gracious Spanish character, customized for modern living.
